

Mobile POS App

Executive Summary

This app is supposed to be used in data-collectors and help in reducing the overall effort spent in inventory management. Using this device, users in retail setups can physically and directly scan items available in the inventory and stores and later update the main POS database with price and other relevant details related to the items. The add-in is compatible with Windows Mobile 6.5.

About our Client

Client Retail Management Solution Providers

Location Iran

Industry Retail Management

Technologies

VB.Net, SQL, POS 2009