

Why the World Loves SharePoint?

SharePoint, developed by Microsoft, is a business productivity platform -- connecting people, processes and information together -- for the enterprise and the Internet.

SharePoint has been credited with being the fastest growing product in Microsoft's history with significant adoption rates. SharePoint's multi-faceted platform equips your business with the power of

- Portals
- Collaboration & social computing
- Enterprise content management
- Enterprise search
- Business intelligence
- Business processes and forms

What's more, you can

- Use its pre-built apps off-the-shelf,
- Use thematic and branding customizations, and
- Extend its capabilities through powerful custom application development to suit your unique and evolving business needs.
